

FRONT OF HOUSE VOLUNTEERS

Theatre Under the Stars:

Theatre Under the Stars Musical Society (TUTS) is non-profit professional/volunteer hybrid arts producer with a mandate to present quality family entertainment in the form of full-scale musical theatre productions, and provide training opportunities in performance and production to community members and aspiring professionals. TUTS achieves this through a unique collaboration between professionals and volunteers working together in administration, performance, production and venue operations. Presented at Malkin Bowl in Stanley Park, Vancouverites have long considered TUTS a summer cultural tradition with average attendance of approximately 25,000 patrons per year.

The 2017 Summer Season at Theatre Under the Stars continues the tradition of open-air musical theatre with the productions of DISNEY'S MARY POPPINS and THE DROWSY CHAPERONE, running in repertory from July 7th to August 19th.

Position Overview:

Theatre Under the Stars is looking for enthusiastic and committed volunteers interested in working as backstage volunteers (running crew, props and costume assistants). This is a great opportunity to gain practical hands on experience as well as volunteer hours.

Responsibilities:

Backstage Volunteers responsibilities are, but not limited to:

- Backstage Crew: Bring the set pieces on and off stage. Some heavy lifting may be required.
- Lighting: Operate the follow spot. Working with the stage manager you will help make sure that the performers are always in their light. Must be okay with heights.
- Sound: Help operate the sound board and help performers get their microphones on and set up.
- Costumes: Working with the costume designer help the performers get their costumes and makeup looking great before every performance. During the show, help performers make those quick changes super quick.
- Props: Working with the stage managers make sure that all of the objects the performers use during the show.

Requirements:

- Some positions may require heavy lifting or climbing heights
- Supply your own "blacks" (black shirt, pants and shoes. That way you blend into the dark stage.)
- Have a positive attitude and a desire to learn something new.

Expectations:

- Plan to be at every performance of the show. If you have any conflicts let us know and we can try to accommodate. An important part of making a show go off without a hitch is having the same crew all the time.
- Be available for the tech days.
 - Mary Poppins: June 23(night), June 24(Day), June 28(night), June 30(night), July 3(night), July 5th(night)
 - Drowsy Chaperone: June 25(day), June 26(night), June 27(night), June 29(night), July(night), July 6(night)
